world cultural masterpiece

Located on the island of Java, the magnificent Borobudur temple is the world's biggest Buddhist Monument, an ancient site widely considered to be the one of the World's Seven Wonders. Built in the 9th century during the reign of the Syailendra Dynasty, the temple sits majestically on a hilltop overlooking lush green fields and distant hills.

The monument is a marvel of design, decorated with 2.672 relief panels and 504 Buddha statues. It was built without using any kind of cement or mortar. Though the temple has remained strong even through ten centuries of neglect. It was rediscovered in 1815, buried under volcanic ash. In the 1970's the Indonesian Government and UNESCO worked together to restore Borobudur to its former majesty
