

| | |
|---------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Project Owner | Mayor of Balikpapan |
| Project Background | A leading industrialized city in Kalimantan and the gateway to East Kalimantan and Indonesia's New Capital City site, Balikpapan government seeks to provide better service and quality of life for citizens and growing population through more efficient waste management infrastructure with new technology. |
| Project Location | Balikpapan City, East Kalimantan Province |
| Capex (±) | USD 56 Million |
| Waste Volume | 362.14 ton/day |
| Tipping Fee | USD 9.50-10.50/ton |
| Concession Period | 20 years (plus 2 years of construction) |
| Potential Revenue | Tipping fee, Sales of RDF/SRF, Rights to sell by-products, Sale of carbon credit, Access to viability gap fund (VGF). |

Manggar Landfill Layout

